GRAND ENCAMPMENT REVIEW

"...is Templary's mouthpiece in a world and time having need of every good office...". It is "a publication which would present to Sir Knights...those Templary 'doings' which, in printed revelation, draw general society's approbation...the transcendent message of the Order, the Gospel of the Risen Saviour...is the cornerstone of Templary." Many of the Sir Knights subscribed to this news bulletin a year ago and they should send their renewals with $1.00 for a 3 year subscription (for the Triennial Record) to Em. Sir Clarence R. Davis, Foreign Correspondent, 27 Kilgore Avenue, West Medford 55, Mass. New subscriptions will also be gladly received by Em. Sir Davis.

EASTER SERVICES

The Grand Encampment will hold the 17th Annual Knights Templars' Easter Sunrise Service in Arlington National Cemetery on Easter morning, April 6, 1947, at 7:30 A. M. The Grand Encampment Committee extends an invitation to all Sir Knights and their ladies to participate. If a sufficient number indicate their desire to attend by informing the Grand Recorder immediately, arrangements for the pilgrimage will be made. Owing to the heavy demand for rooms in Washington, time is the essential factor. Cost of pullman and hotel room last year was about $50.00 per person.

MANNING BOWL, LYNN, MASS.

For the second year, Olivet Commandery will hold services in Manning Bowl. Tentative plans call for services to be held on Sunday afternoon, May 18, 1947, at 3:30 o'clock. Guest speaker will be Dr. Ralph Sockman, Pastor of Christ Methodist Church of New York City, famed radio preacher. It is planned to have a vested choir of 300 voices directed by Dr. Houghton, with Alice Farnsworth as guest soloist. J. Henry Paige will preside at the Hammond Electric Organ, which will be provided with amplifying equipment. As last year, Sir Knights will march into Bowl in formation and the triangle and cross will again be displayed.
